QUEEN NEAR RIVER STREET

VOLCANO GOOD AT ANY TIME

Whether Asleep or Awake It is Always a Great Sight.

Visit the volcano whether active or inactive, whether it is throwing fiery fountains of lava, or merely a black, deep smoking pit, is the advice given by the Hawaii Promotion Committee, the suggestion being officially adopted by that body at its regular weekly meeting held yesterday afternoon.

This action was taken as the result of a statement made by W. J. Cooper, of the Promotion Committee staff, who visited the volcano last week to get impressions first hand for use in the press news service sent out by the committee. Mr. Cooper stated that the deepest impression made upon him through his visit was that the volcano was worth while visiting under any and all circumstances. This impression had been strengthened by the statement of a fellow-traveler, Mr. Waterbury of the Waterbury Chemical Co., Des Moines, Ia., who with all the others on the Elks excursion had heard on arriving at Hilo that the bottom had dropped out of the Halemaunau pit.
But when Mr. Waterbury started to ride across the great expanse of old lava in the main crater, he declared then and there that he would not have missed coming all the way from Iowa just to see that old lava floor. And when he saw the pit filling up again with lava and the lava fountains playing, he declared that he would have spent $500 if necessary just to make the trip from Honolulu to the volcano.

Mr. Cooper stated that people not only in Honolulu, but in Hilo as well, to whom the volcano's variations are an old story, tell travelers that it is not worth while seeing if not in action.
It is a common, but thoughtless, statement to make.

The Promotion Committee took Mr.
Cooper's view of the matter, and from personal knowledge of the situation declared that the volcano should be visited by strangers, in action or not. It was equally a wonder of the world.

Secretary Wood stated that the committee's map the "Crossroads of the Pacific" was in great demand with the Pacific fleet and after many officers had called to get a copy, he sent a score to Admiral Swinburne and received the following acknowledgment:

Office of Commander-in-Chief,
United States Pacific Fleet, U. S. S.
West Virginia, Flagship.

Honolulu, T. H., September 6, 1908.
Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 5th instant transmitting twenty-five copies of charts of the "Crossroads of the Pacific" which will be distributed among the vessels of the fleet.

Thanking the Promotion Committee very much for these charts which will be of great interest as well as of value to the officers, I am, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief,

Very respectfully,

E. T. CONSTEIN,
Lieutenant, U. S. Navy, Flag Secretary.
Mr. H. P. Wood, Secretary, Hawaiian Promotion Committee, Honolulu, T. H.

The secretary said that Captain Oliver, chief of staff, Pacific fleet, had complimented the map highly, saying that the arrangement told in picture what would take long to tell in words, and that it was of great value to the fleet.

Referring to correspondence with the Official Tourist Office of Batavia, Java, Mr. Wood stated he had sent on Hawaii literature, and would cooperate with the Tourist Office. A letter from that office was as follows:

Batavia, August 1, 1908.
The Hawaii Promotion Committee, Young Building, Honolulu.

Dear Sirs: In answer to our letter of May 18th to Mr. von Holt, Consul for the Netherlands, in which letter we informed that gentleman of the founding of the Official Tourist Office in Batavia, Mr. von Holt wrote us, that he would mention the matter to the secretary of your committee, and advised us to enter into correspondence with you.

The Official Tourist Office means to promote tourism in the island of Java and the other isles of the Netherlands Indian Archipelago. For that purpose we intend to publish guidebooks, descriptions of trips on Java, posters, maps, etc., which will be distributed all over the world. The fact is, that the isle of Java is one of the most beautiful parts of the world, but at the same time it is, from a popular point of view, a terra incognita.

We would appreciate it very much if you would have the kindness to handle our descriptions of trips, posters, etc. In reciprocation we shall be glad to do the same with similar literature of your country.

We hope to receive an early reply and offer you our thanks in anticipation for anything you may be obliging enough to do for us in the matter. We remain, sirs,

Very truly yours,

OFFICIAL TOURIST OFFICE.

In the name of the administration.
A letter was read from a committee of ladies who intend getting up a fair during the time the Pacific fleet is again in port and expect to make use of the Bishop Park, opposite the Young Hotel. The letter was as follows:

Honolulu, T. H., August 29, 1908.
Mr. H. P. Wood, Secretary, Hawaiian Promotion Committee, Honolulu, T. H.

Dear Sir: We, the undersigned, respectfully ask your help and influence to get us the use of the park lot opposite the Young Hotel, for a Hawaiian Fair, which we intend to hold in October when the Pacific fleet returns to Honolulu.

The object of the fair is to raise funds for scholarships for Hawaiian boys at Aliiolani College, Palolo, the school which was opened two years ago

Address P. O. Box 231.

The following letter was received from the Advisory Land Law Commission of the Territory, and referred to Chairman Brown to consult with the chairman of the commission:

Honolulu, T. H., Aug. 27, 1908.
Hawaii Promotion Committee, Honolulu, T. H.

Gentlemen: The Advisory Land Law Commission of the Territory of Hawaii is desirous of obtaining all information possible on the question of the administration of or legislation concerning the land laws of the Territory of Hawaii. It has seemed to the Commission that the persons who can materially aid the Commission are those who at some time in the past have held or are at the present time holding public lands or those who are familiar with the methods by which land may at the present time be acquired from the government.

You perhaps may have devoted some thought to the subject of the administration of the land laws of this Territory or perhaps as to some desired amendment to the same, and the Commission would appreciate any suggestion which you may forward to it relative to the land laws of the Territory or amendment to the same. If you have given any thought to the question of the establishment of homesteads from public lands, you might add your suggestions on this matter to any other suggestion which you may send.

Communications should be sent to the chairman of the Commission at 209 Judd building, Honolulu.

Yours very truly,

A. LEWIS JR.,
Chairman, Advisory Land Law Commission.

A very handsome poster design for the Floral Parade and Mardi Gras on Washington's Birthday, 1909, was received, with a request that the time for acceptance be extended so that the design might be completed. The committee acceded to the request.

Chairman Brown stated that Prof.
Williams of Yale, a visitor in Honolulu, had commented on the literature issued by the committee, his idea being that the literature was not sufficiently extensive. Mr. Brown said he had explained that the committee could not get out volumes or histories of the islands, the idea of promotion literature being to give variety, and in a brief way. That it touched upon some important subjects was necessary, as it could not go into full details.

In speaking of publications covering general subjects of the islands, the secretary complimented "Picturesque Hawaii," issued by the Hawaiian Gazette Company, as one of the most comprehensive publications ever gotten out in the islands.

PUBLIC SERVICE

rides easy and makes a good appearance. For that reason the machines street, opposite the Hawaiian Hotel, are in constant demand. Manager Wells of this company has Studebaker, Stevens, Duryea, Buick and Pope-Hartford for public service at the most reasonable rates. An inquiry on phone 191 will bring information as to rates.
